UNITED PRESS FALSEHOODS.

Fress Refutes a Number of Them.

CHICAGO, Ill., Dec. 12.—It cannot have escaped public attention that during the past year there has been a persistent and malignant endeavor on the part of a few New York papers to discredit The Associated Press. Day after day it has been asserted that The Associated Press was falling in pieces; that it was bankrupt; that each month's business showed a deficit; that its news.

Accounted Press was failing in Book according to the According Press was failing in Book according to the Ac

and will place the same on sale

TO-MORROW MORNING, AT 8 A. M.

This purchase is one of the largest ever consummated in this city. We could easily state the cash amount but prefer to remain above criticism, as there are always a lot of "Doubting Thomases." Suffice it to say that this stock is large enough, and full enough, to withstand the onslaught of purchasers for at least two weeks without break ing up a line of sizes, and the variety of styles and prices is simply immense. We would like to have you come early, as our previous sales have taught us that REAL GOOD JUDGES are the early purchasers, and thereby secure the bargains.

We herewith quote Alfred Benjamin & Co.'s wholesale prices for these garments, and if you add 33 per cent. you can easily get at the regular retail selling price, then compare that with OUR PRICES. These are clean, fresh goods, made up for this season, and well worthy of your attention. Here is the main description of suits and prices.
